When people talk about a property having privacy, they are talking about this truly amazing property set high up in the hills of Mount Tully only 12 minutes from the centre of Stanthorpe. As you meander up the driveway, you start to feel the peace and tranquility and begin to leave your stress behind. At the end of the driveway, you'll discover this truly unique property and stunning architectural home with established garden areas.

Featuring views from every window, a substantial open plan kitchen, dining and living area - kitchen with walk-in pantry, 900mm freestanding oven and lots of bench space, and massive dining and living area boasting an impressive fireplace, dramatic high ceilings and spectacular views. All three bedrooms have built-in robes, views across the property and to the distance and access to the massive deck and verandahs along the length of the home. There are two bathrooms and under the home are two additional rooms for storage.
